

UB ALERT

Timely Warning
From University Police

An incident has occurred on or near a University at Buffalo campus that may pose a continuing threat to the university community. This warning is provided so that you may take whatever action is deemed necessary for your safety.

University Police received a report of a strong arm robbery which occurred at the Governors Service Lot at 8:20pm on Friday, March 20, 2009. A male suspect approached a female victim from behind, pushed her to the ground and attempted to flee with her purse. The victim was able to regain possession of her purse from the suspect who was last seen running towards the academic spine. Suspect is described as a white male, 6' tall, 165-185 lbs, muscular build, wearing a baggy black hoodie and black sweat pants.

Remember to stay alert to your surroundings and always travel with other people. When possible, use the Anti-Rape Task Force escort program (348-7258) or other UB transportation services.

Members of the community are urged to be vigilant at all times. Report any unusual circumstances or suspicious persons and activities to the University Police as soon as possible.
