Timely Warning
From University Police

An incident has occurred on or near a University at Buffalo campus that may pose a continuing threat to the university community. This warning is provided so that you may take whatever action is deemed necessary for your safety.

University Police are investigating a strong-arm robbery reported October 11, 2009 at approximately 10:45 PM on Rensch Road near the intersection with J.J. Audubon Parkway. The victim was approached from behind and shoved to the ground.

The suspect was described as a light skinned black male, approximately 6' 2" tall, medium build, in his late 20's to early 30's, with short black hair, and thin goatee. The suspect was wearing blue jeans and black fleece with a white undershirt. The suspect was last seen running westbound on Rensch Road towards Sweethome Road.

To protect yourself, remember to stay alert to your surroundings and always travel with other people. When possible, use the Anti-Rape Task Force escort program or other UB transportation services. Call 829-2584 for escort program information from 9 AM to 5 PM Monday through Friday or go to their Web site at healtheducation.buffalo.edu.

Members of the community are urged to be vigilant at all times. Report any unusual circumstances or suspicious persons and activities to the University Police as soon as possible.
